ABSENT MINNED .-- An indisputable case of abscence of mind is related by the Providence Journal:--An old gentleman in that city got his hand saught in a machine on which he was at work a few days since, and jammed one of his fingers badly. Being in a great harry, his fingers badly. Being in a great hurry, he quickly wrapped it up and went to work again. When he got home in the evening he told his wife how badly, he had hurt his hand, and took off the rag to show her, when be discovered that he had wrapped up the prong finger.
